Woldemar Neufeld's Canada A Mennonite Artist in the Canadian Landscape 1925-1995

Text by: Hildi and Paul Tiessen

Edited by: Laurence Neufeld and Monika McKillen

Follow Neufeld's journey from oil painting to watercolours and block prints as well as his travels from Western Canada to Eastern Canada to the United States and back to his home in Southern Ontario, creating art along the way ... "Looking through painted landscapes as if they were postcards of the places he has been."

Learn about the Kitchener Art Club, the strong impact Canadian artist Homer Watson had on Neufeld's career, his flirtation with abstract art and his sculptures he titled "useless machines".

- Do you own a painting by Woldemar Neufeld and want to know the story behind the man who painted it?
- Are you interested in the history of Waterloo County?
- Are you looking for a gift that illustrates our part of Canada?
- Are you a person who loves art and learning about the process and history behind the making of art pieces?

If you fit into any of these categories then this book is a terrific find for you!

Woldemar Neufeld's Canada was written to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Woldemar Neufeld. Publishing costs were subsidized by Wilfred Laurier University and Laurence Neufeld.

Other books written about the life and art of Woldemar Neufeld were well received and sold out quickly.

There will be a book signing held by the authors and editors, January 23rd and January 24th, 2-4 pm at the Gallery.
